The Wolf in
Sheep's Clothing

The shepherd and his dogs guarded the sheep herd.

The wolf could not get any sheep for dinner. He was hungry for many days.

Then he found the skin of a sheep that had died.

The wolf put on the sheep skin and snuck into the herd. He was a wolf in sheep's clothing.

One lamb followed the wolf. The lamb thought the wolf was her mother.

When the wolf and lamb were far away from the herd, the wolf ate the lamb.

Moral- Be careful, things are not always what they seem like.
